RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Exhibitors must reside within 10 miles radius of Earls Colne. Children who have a relative within this radius may also enter.
2. Entry forms and fees must be returned to the Chairman or Secretary by Wednesday 7th August.
3. All exhibits are to be staged between 6.00 pm and 8.00 pm on Friday 9th August or on the morning of the Show between 8.00 am and 11.00 am. Exhibitors must leave the hall for judging to start PROMPTLY at 11.00 am.
4. No one is to interfere or move other exhibits at any time. PLEASE ASK A STEWARD. ALL EXHIBITS must be removed by exhibitors between 5.00pm and 5.30pm. The committee cannot be responsible for exhibits that are not collected.
5. All produce must be grown at the address shown on the entry form or at an allotment cultivated by the exhibitor. The gardens of exhibitors must be open for inspection by the Committee after the entry form has been submitted.
6. No prize will be given if the Judges deem an exhibit not deserving. The Judge's decision on all matters is final.
7. No exhibitor may show more than one entry in each class.
8. Any exhibit carrying garden pests, such as greenfly, etc, shall be removed from the hall and may be disqualified.
9. Vegetables must be clean and well presented. Further information from the Secretary, the RHS Horticultural Show Handbook which is kept in Earls Colne Library or the 'Hints & Tips' section of the FCHS website (www.fourcolneshorticulturalsociety.com).
10. Flowers for arrangements (Section E) need not be grown by the exhibitor.
11. Exhibits in Sections C (Art, Craft & Photography) and F (Children) must not have been exhibited in any previous FCHS annual show.
12. Exhibits in Section B (Home Economics) must be cold.
13. Handicraft entries should be clean and unused.
14. If the number of vegetables, flowers or other items varies from that stated in this schedule, or if the dimensions of an exhibit exceed the stated maximum, the entry may be disqualified at the judge's discretion.
15. Any person exhibiting an entry for the competition, which has not been grown or made by the exhibitor, will forfeit all prizes and be debarred from exhibiting in any future Show of the Society, with the exception as in Rule 10.
16. Exhibitors' names must not be visible on any entry, this is particularly relevant to classes 82, 83, 84, and 170 (artwork).
17. All exhibits, personal property, etc. shall be at the risk of the exhibitors, and the Society shall not be liable for compensation for loss or damage from any cause whatsoever.

NOTES ON THIS YEAR'S SCHEDULE

This year the Anne Aitkin bowl will be awarded to the most points from a first time exhibitor in Section D, flowers. Next years it will be awarded to the most points achieved by a first time exhibitor in Section E, Floral Art. Each year it will be a different section.

Children are reminded that they are welcome to enter any of the show classes not just those specifically for children. Additional boxes have been provided on the children's entry form where you can enter the class number of any additional classes you intend to enter. If there are insufficient boxes then add additional class numbers on the back of the form.

There is a new class 31 comprising 2 items - a flower and a vegetable or piece of fruit. See page 5 for more details.

In addition to this schedule, hints and tips on how to show exhibits are available on the FCHS website (www.fourcolneshorticulturalsociety.com) or from the secretary (tel. 223521).

SECTION F - HANDWRITING

Class 152 - under 8 years

The Pongwiffy stories 1.

A Witch of Dirty Habits,

By Kaye Umansky

Chapter 1

Entertaining

'Witch Sharkadder! My old friend!' cried Witch Pongwiffy, opening the front boulder with her very best welcoming smile firmly fixed in place.

'What a lovely surprise. Welcome to my humble cave. My you do look nice.'

Class 160 - 8 to 12 years

The Chronicles of Narnia

By C.S Lewis

The Magician's Nephew

Chapter 1

The Wrong Door

This is a story about something that happened long ago when your Grandfather was a child. It is a very important story because it shows how all the comings and goings between our own world and the land of Narnia first began.

In those days Mr Sherlock Holmes was still living in Baker Street and the Bastables were looking for treasure in the Lewisham Road. In those days, if you were a boy you had to wear a stiff Eton collar every day, and schools were usually nastier than now.

SECTION B - HOME ECONOMICS (judges: Barbara Marcoolyn and Sarah Adlem)

Lemon Garland Biscuits (Class 43)

Ingredients (makes 16)

- 75g butter or margarine
- 75g soft light brown sugar
- 75g Wholemeal flour
- 75g Plain flour
- ¼ teaspoon vanilla essence
- 2 tablespoons milk

For the Glace Icing

- 4 teaspoon lemon juice
- 100g icing sugar

Method

1. Heat oven to 180C fan/160C.
2. Beat margarine and sugar until fluffy.
3. Sift in flours and stir into mixture with milk and vanilla.
4. Knead lightly and divide into 16 even pieces. Divide each of these pieces into eight even pieces and form into balls. Arrange 8 balls in rings on baking sheets lined with baking parchment, press together lightly to form garlands.
5. Bake for 15-20 minutes until golden brown.
6. Leave to cool.

Icing

Mix together the icing sugar and lemon juice to make a smooth, runny icing. Dip the biscuit tops in icing, remove and leave to harden.

SECTION F - CHILDREN'S ENTRIES (judge: Gillian Carter)

Exhibits in Section F must be the child's own work and must not have been exhibited in any previous FCHS annual show. Where a maximum size is stated it cannot be exceeded. If the maximum size is exceeded the entry will not be judged. Where no maximum size is stated but your exhibit will be greater than 45cm in any direction please indicate the size on the entry form so sufficient space can be allocated.

Prize money kindly donated by Chris and Jenny Dale.
